Meghan Magee '15, our president, has been a member of the group since fall of her freshman year.

A Note from Our President

It has been a whirlwind of a year as president and I am extraordinarily proud of all that LowKeys past and present have accomplished over the past few months. We kicked off the year with an amazing audition season and hit the ground running preparing for the 15th Anniversary Jam. It was a true manifestation of the phrase "LowKey for life" to see the many generations of LowKeys on Sanders stage and interacting throughout the weekend.

Coming back from a gloriously sunny J-term tour in San Francisco, we had another amazing jam in February with the Kroks and are lucky enough to have added 2 more RooKeys to the group. With only a few months left until graduation, I look forward to watching the group continue to grow as it has for the past 15 years and joining the thriving LowKeys alumni community.

LowKey love,
Meghan

PAINT THE TOWN RED

AN EVENING OF A CAPPELLA
Celebrating Our 15th Anniversary

SPONSORED BY THE UC

15 years of LowKeys alumni returned to Sanders Theatre on November 15th, 2014 for our fall anniversary jam "Paint the Town Red."

San Francisco Tour

▼ LowKeys escaped Cambridge's brutal winter and journeyed to the west coast for their 2015 Tour, renting a house in the heart of San Francisco. Highlights of the trip include performing for local schools, exploring Fisherman's Wharf, strolling through Muir Woods, and rehearsing with Stanford a cappella group Everyday People.

Spring Jam: Under Krok & Key

▼ On the heels of our San Francisco tour, the Keys returned to campus for our spring jam with the Harvard Krokodiloes. We also honored our beautiful and beloved seniors, Meghan Magee and Annie Arrighi-Allisan, who are both four-year LowKeys.

Missed it? No worries!

Spring Jam, Part II

After our February jam in Sanders, the LowKeys have been rehearsing new arrangements and preparing for another spring jam – a short, non-ticketed, and intimate performance in Lowell Bell Tower. We'd love to see you there!

Thursday, April 30th at 8pm in Lowell Bell Tower
